EXERCISES AT THE COLLEGES.

CLASS DAY AT CORNELL UNIVERSITY. ITHACA, June 15 (Special) .- To-day's class day exercises certainly sustain the prediction that the commencement of 1886 would be the most brilliant for years. This beautiful town is crowded with visitors Charming weather prevailed. The first part of the cere monies was held in the armory An immense andience was present, but the arrangement was such that the speakers could easily be heard in all parts of the hall. was full to the doors. Prayer was offered by the Rev Dr. W. D. Wilson, who last week delivered his last lectures on moral philosophy. He is now emeritus professor. The roll of the graduating class was called by A. E. Dunham. The class oration was delivered by E. D. A. Delima. W. F. Hugili read the class poem, and Miss A. M. Paddock the class essay. The class memorial. consisting of $1,000, to be used as a juntor contest fund, was presented to the university by J. T. Sackett, and was accepted in a happy speech by President Adams. A. S. Norton, president of the class, delivered the closing address. The sentors and audience then went out to the centre of the campus where stands an enormous pine tree. Ten young ladies of Sage College, who pine tree, tell young men of '86, marched out with them, and at the same time donned mortar boards like their brethren. Their delicate features looked charming under the old scholastic bonnets. Together all the graduates gathered under the great tree, For many yards in a circle around them, extended the gay and brilliant gowns of ladies, with fewer gentlemen; and outside of this circle was another of many carriages, with an occasional four-inhand from Anburn or some other neighboring city. Here the class ivy was planted, white the band played. Then H. C. Charplot delivered the ivy oration. After a class song, a box containing the sacred releas of the class may buried, C. H. Huil read the class history, and E. H. Doud the class prophecy. The historic class pipe was presented to the present junior class by W. G. Barney, and it was received on behalf of the younger class by P. B. Roberts. After another class song, there was a farewell visit to the college balls, and the exercise ended in general merriment. To-night the class bail is being held at the armory, and is in every respect a brilliant and successful affair. received their degrees with the young men

AN ADDRESS TO THE ALUMNI AT BROWN. PROVIDENCE, R. I., June 15 (Special) .- The annual meeting of the Phi Beta Kappa Society was held in Manning Hall at 9:30 a. m. to-day, for the transaction of business, the president, Rowland Hazard, in the chair. B. F. Thoruton, of Providence, and the Rev. James M. Taylor, president of Vassar College, were elected members. The present officers were re-cleated. The Alumni Society provided the literary entertainment this year. Hamilton B. Staples, of Worcester, president of the Association, was in the chair. The orapresident of the Association, was in the chair. The orator of the day was the Kev. James O. Marray, D. D., of Princeton College, whose theme was "English Literature, its Scope and Methods." The influence of climate, race, etc., in monising the character of the literature of a people was brought out and illustrated; also the disciplinary influence of the study of English literature. The orator evinced thorough knowledge of what has for so many years occupied his thoughts and enlisted his best energies as a student and an accomplished instructor.

The poem by I. Nelson Ford, of the class of 1870, was a tender tale of Arctic suffering and death, related in harmonious verse and in a winning manner. It called forth much appliance. rth much applause. The class which is to be graduated to-morrow numbers

The saintatory was delivered by Amos P. Brown and the salutatory was delivered by Amos P. Brown and the valedictory by James H. Truman. Salem, Va., June 15.—The annual address before the Alumni Association of Roanoke College was delivered this morning in the Town Hall by the Rev. E. E. Sibole, of Philadelphia. His subject was "Our Social System, its Evils and its Remedies." This evening, Major Henry Kyd Douglass, of Maryland, delivered the annual oration before the Library Society, aiming to show that "Good Sworls mabe Good Ploughshares."

EXERCISES AT THE PACKER INSTITUTE. The graduating exercises of the Packer Collegiate Institute, of Brooklyn, were held last night in the chapel. The chancel was elaborately trimmed with flowers, over a pyramid of which the figures "'86" were hung. Dr. Backus, the president, sat upon the platform with many of the trustees. The graduating class contained thirty-one young women. They were: ng women. They were:

Grace L Morrison,
Theresa A Morro,
Emma & O'Fonobue,
Hannah C Caborne,
Mary H Osgood,
Lizze H Perry,

Miss Prentice was the salutatorian. Her remarks were said in Latin. "Southern Life in the Old Time" was the subject of an essay by Miss Morrison. Miss Osgood read an interesting original sketch entitled "Father Barstow's Ministry." Miss Williams told of "Les Francis." Miss Halliday eulogized Ophelia. Miss Hauson and Miss Homson discussed "Strikes." The former defended them, the latter pronounced them wrong and full of harm. "Die Wacht des Entschlusses" was the subject of Miss Osborne's oration. Miss Harris discussed Mr. Cable's novels. Miss Bond told "Some Charms of Idleness," and Miss Perry delivered the valedictory. The class for next year promises to be large and the freshman class larger that ever, Miss Scott, who has been for some years Professor of English Literature at Packer, will go to Germany in a few days to study metsphysics. Her leave of absence covers a year.

ATTRACTIONS OF SHOHOLA GLEN. Yesterday was a great day for Shohola Glen.

The proprietor of the Gien Hotel, J. F. Kildal train of Pullman cars had been advertised to start from the Eric Railroad station in Jersey City, but the crowd kept coming so steadily that a dozen or two cars had to be added. The train got away finally in two sections about 10 o'clock. Three hours later it two sections about 10 o'clock. Three hours later it pulled up at Shohola. The dining-room of the hotel could seat only 150 at a time and the last detachment did not get through dinner till about 5 o'clock. There was time enough left, however, for a glance at the natural beauties of this new mountain resort. The hotel commands a broad view of river, forests and hills. A "switch-back" railroad runs down to the feet of the gien, about a mile away. Here are a restainant, a skature-rink, daucing floor, a park furnished with rustic benches and a miniature coal mine. The gien is about half a neile long with a rather steep ascent by paths on either side and is filled with pretty cascades and striking arrangements of rocks.

A CHARGE AGAINST CAPTAIN COPELAND. Five members of the Grove Social Club made a formal charge against Captain Copeland, of the Ninth Precinct to Superintendeut Murray yesterday morning.
They claim that Captain Copeland broke into their club room at Bieceker and Grove sts. on Monday night, and clubbed several members. The Superintendent took ciubbed several members. The Superintendent took note of the charge and said he would investigate it today. Captain Copeland said last evening that the complaint against him amounted to nothing. This ciub hall been complained of many times by the people in the neighborhood. Yesterday morning about haif past 12 o'clock they were making more noise than usual, and Captain Copeland, who was passing, entered the club-room and told them to stop disturbing the neighborhood. After the Captain went away they shouted londer than ever. Captain Copeland then went to the station, got a squal of men, and, roing to the club room, cleared it out. According to the Captain's statement no clubbing was done.

The Veteran Corps of the 22d Regiment met last evening at its headquarters. No. 4 Union Square, and completed arrangements for the trip to Hartford and New-Haven. The battalion marched to the Old Guard Armory, where Colonel S. Ellis Briggs drilled the high in the ordinary movements of a street parade. Next Thursday at Sa. m., the command will take a special train for New-Haven. The excursion will occupy two days.

THE MAINE PROHIBITION ISTS. PORTLAND, Me., June 15 .- The Prohibitionists are aiready assembling here for Thursday's conven-tion. Informal meetings will be held to morrow. Neal bow, the Rev. Dr. Biatchford and the Rev. Mr. Clark are talked of for Governor.

PARDON REFUSED TO MILTON WESTON. HARRISBURG, June 15 (Special) .- The Board of Pardons, after having the case of Milton Weston, the Chicago millionaire, before it for three months, decided to-night to refuse him a pardon. Weston was convicted of manelaughter in a fight which grew out of a struggle for the possession of a gas well in Westmoreland County. He provided arms and ammunition for his men and ordered them to fire on the parties who tried to get possession. One man was killed and Weston was convicted.

DROWNED HIMSELF IN A GARDEN WELL. Frederick Schultz, a German, age seventysix, of Stapleton, S. I., was found drowned in a well in the rear of his house yesterday morning. Schultz a long time, and was in arrears for rent and became despondent. On Monday he was ordered to vacute his spartment on the following day. Early yesterday morning his wife informed the police that he was missing, having left his bed at 3 o'clock in the morning and as he had threatened to committ suitede, she feared the worst. Officer Joseph King found footprints in the soft ground leading to a well in the garden. He lowered a grapping iron into the water and recovered the body of the old man.

THE THIRD-AVE, STRIKE ENDED AGAIN

THIS TIME THE STRIKERS DECLARE IT OFF-IN DES TITUTE CIRCUMSTANCES. The Third Avenue strike has been declared off officially again; this time by the strikers themselves. They met yesterday at No. 855 Second-ave. to hear the report of the district delegates as to what was done in their case at No. 263 Bowery on Monday. The report was not satisfactory, for curses loud and long were heaped on the heads of the District Executive Board for leading them into their present situation. Many of the men are in extremely destitute circumstance. After they finished calling the District Board hard names, it was resolved to send a committee to Joseph P. O' Don was resolved to send a committee to Joseph P. O' Donnell and ask him to come to their rescue. It was thought that he might get the company to take some of the men back to work. In view of the fact that Mr. Lyon had been reported as saying, that, if the strike was declared of, he would give employment to some of the old hands, it was decided to declare the strike at an end. This was accomplished, however, after a long debate and by a close vote.

At the meeting in Second-ave, committees were appointed to wait on President Lyon, Mr. Lanterbach, Superintendent Robertson and Mr. Beaver. They saw all except Mr. Lauterbach, but with the exception of Mr. Robertson, who said that, if the men came around in a week or two, there might be work for some of them, the committees got cold comfort. In accordance with the request of the committee appointed to see him Joseph P. O'Donnell called at the company's office with James F. Downing, but they accomplished nothing.

THE PRICE OF MUTTON GOING UP. The sheep butchers' strike is apparently as far from a settlement as it ever was. In the meantime the price of mutton has gone up 2 or 3 cents a pound and price of mutton has gone up 2 or 3 cents a bound and a large number of sheep in the slaughter houses are dying. Mr. Levy, one of the employers, called at the headquarters of the union at No. 855 Second-ave., yesterday and said that Messrs, Harrington, Shea and Vanderbeck wished to confer with them. A committee of four called on Mr. Harrington at his office, but he said that he had not sent for them and did not wish to see them. To a Thirdner reporter he said that if a fight had to come he was ready for it now. A few non-union green hands have been employed, but there are many sheep in the slaughter houses which are suffering severely for lack of proper care.

LABOR TROUBLES IN VARIOUS PLACES. PITTSBURG, June 15 (Special) .- The strike of the coal miners at New-Bethlehem, Penn., is broken The men at the Oak Ridge mines are working under the protection of the sheriff. The Fairmount miners also resumed this morning under the protection of the sheriff. The men are working for 55 cents a ton. They struck for 65 cents just three months ago. The strikermane strong efforts to keep the men out of the Oak Ridge mine and desisted only when three of their leaders were arrested for conspiracy.

The annual convention of the Universal Federation of Window Giass Workers will be held at St. Heleus, England, about July 15. The American Glass Workers wil be represented by President James Campbell, Secretary John Winters and Samuel A. Wallace, who will sail from New-York for England on July 3. The annual conven-tion of the Window Glass Workers' Association of the United States will begin here on July 6. United States will begin here on July 6.

At Washington, Penn., to-day the coal miners who in sample and beat non-union men were scatteneed to undergo eight months' imprisonment in the Allegheny County Workhouse.

Chicago, June 15.—Over 100 of the employes of the bex factories of Dare Brothers and D. M. Goodwillie quit work yesterday. It is thought the matter will be AMSTERDAM, N. Y., June 15.—On slight provocation to-day all the knitting utils of Amsterdam were closed until Monday. A general strike may follow.

WHEAT-THE YEAR'S MOVEMENT.

CROP PROSPECTS-MORE THAN 70,000,000 BUSH-To the Editor of The Tribune

Sin: The official report just issued by the Bureau of Statistics, showing the movement of bread-study from the principal ports in May, makes it possible to estimate the wheat movement for the en'ire year with considerable accuracy. The month of May was the first in the entire crop year in which the ex ports of wheat and flour exceeded those of the same month in the preceding year to any considerable extent There was a slight excess in March over the exports of decrease appears. But in Mar the excess of exports from the principal ports was equivalent to 3,246,000 bushels of wheat. Adding this report to the official Reckoning flour as wheat at the usual rate, 41g bush is to the barrel, the total exports for eleven month May being incomplete, amount to 81,74-,630 bushels against 126,258,783 bushels for the same months of the previous year. If the exports in June should equal ose of June last, the aggregate for the year would about 88,000,000 bushels. But the returns for the first week of June show an increase of 1,250,000 bushels in exports from the Atlantic ports, and the course of prices indicates that an increase is possible as great as the increase in May. If that should occur, the aggregate exports of wheat and flour for the year would be equivalent to 91,000,000 bushels.

At the beginning of the crop year, as was shown in previous letters, the surplus of wheat available was 129,338,249 bushels, reckoning the consumption for 1884-5 at more than the average for the previous sixteen years, namely 4 % bushels per capita besides the requirement for seed. For the year now nearly ended, at the same rate, the consumption would be 266.543,167 bushels for food and 51.417.218 for seed, the acreage being estimated by the Agricultural Bureau at 24,727,087 for winter and 12.000,000 acres for spring wheat. But for the fact that the year has been one of somewhat unsatisfactory business, with many hands out of employment, it might be reckoned that the low price prevailing would have caused a house consumption considerably above the average. But it is probable that the consumption has not in fact much exceeded the ascertained average. If the largest consumption discovered in any past period be allowed for the current year, namely, 4.6 businels per capita for food and manufactures besides seed, the consumption for the year would have remained 162,450,000 bushels for export, and if has been shown that the exports may reach but can hardly exceed 91,000,000 bushels. In that case there would have remained 162,450,000 bushels. In that case the surplus remaining unsoid at the end of the crop vear, June 30, will be about 71,500,000 bushels, an important decrease during the past tweive months, and yet a large surplus to carry over if the coming crop proves satisfactory.

Respecting the coming crop, the latest reports of the teen years, namely 44 bushels per capita besides the surplus to earry over if the coming crop proves satisfactory.

Respecting the coming crop, the latest reports of the bureau indicate a condition Jane I which would warrant an estimate of a little over 450,000,000 bashels. The reports of injury since June I have been found in almost every case greatly exagerated, and it does not at this date seem probable that the local harm inflicted by drouth in some cases, by insects in others, and by frost in a few localities in the far North, has reduced the yield below about 450,000,000 bushels. There is yet time for chances of considerable importance, but the present outlook warrants the expectation that consumers will have cheap wheat in this country for at least another year, and that the operations of wheat apeculators will be restrained, as they have been during the past year, by the presence of a great unsoid surplus pressing for sale.

ARRESTED IN WALLACK'S THEATER. Detective Price, of the Twenty-ninth Precinet, was standing in front of Wallack's Theatre while the people were coming out after the performance that night, when a fashionably dressed woman stepped up and asked him if he was an officer. He replied in the affirmative, when she told him that wanted her husband, who was in the theatre, arrested. A warrant was issued for nim, explained, by Judge Murray, in the Sixth District explained, by Judge Murray, in the Sixth District Court, on a charge of abandonment. Detective Price arrested the man whom the woman pointed out. He was accompanied by a small boy. The man who was Thomas S. Constantine, a westithy lumber merchant, was indignant at his arrest. At the station he was confronted by his wife. It appears that Constantine abandoned his wife, Harriet E. Constantine, about a year jazo. They have one child, a boy of nine. The husband was allowed to see the boy a week ago and it is aliered took him away with him. The boy, who showed an inclination toward his father, was detained at the station and the Society for the Frevention of Cruelty to Children was informed. Captain Williams would not allow the mother to take the boy home. Constantine will be arraigned before Judge Murray this morning.

JOURNEY OF THE VICTORIAN PRIME MINISTER. PITTSBURG, June 15 (Special) .- Prime Miniser James Service, of the Province of Victoria, Australia, accompanied by his wife, seven daughters and three friends, passed through the city this morning on his way to Washington. Mr. Service is General Commis-sioner of the Inter-Colonial Exhibition in London.

L. P. MORTON FOR CHAIRMAN

WORK OF THE COUNTY COMMITTEE.

IN THE CONTESTED CASES THE SITTING DELEGATES ADMITTED-VOTES FOR MR. MITCHELL, It was not expected until yesterday morning that there would be any opposition to the re-election of Edward Mitchell for chairman, and Knox McAfee for secretary of the Republican County Committee. Mr. Mitchell was not anxious for a second term, and there were many who thought that L. P. Morton was entitled to that much recognition from the Republican party of this city for his moral and pecuniary support at times when the party needed both. The feeling grew during the day, so that when the caucus of the party leaders was held in the hall of the Grand Opera House, at 4 p. m., a decided majority favored nominating Mr. Mor-

The caucus was presided over by General Joseph C Jackson. After a little informal talk, John D. Lawson named E ward Mitchell for chairman. He spoke of his qualifications for the position and the satisfaction that he had given during the last year. John J. O'Brien named L. P. Morton as one who had done much for the party in this city. It would be a graceful thing to make him the chairman of the County Committee. The coming campaign in this city would be an extremely important one and it was advisable to have a strong man in the piace. Mr. Lawson and others wanted to know whether Mr. Morton would serve as chairman if elected. Mr. O'Brien and others said that while Mr. Morton did not seek the place he would serve if elected. Mr. Lawson said that if this was the case he would vote for Mr. Morton, and he felt satisfied that a majority of the members of his district, the VIIth. would do the same. A vote was then taken, each leader responding for his district. The result was that the lat, Hd, IVth, Vth, VIIth, VIIIth, IXth, Xth, XIth, XiIth, XIIIth, XIVth, XVIIth, XVIIIth, XIXth, XXIId and XXIIId Districts and the Twenty-fourth Ward declared for Mr. Morton. The HId, VIth, XVIth and XXth Dis tricts and the Twenty-third Ward for Mr. Mitchell. The representative of the XXIst District was absent. The nomination was made unanimous. The following ticket was then unanimously agreed upon:

Chairman—L. P. Morton,
First Vice-Chairman—John W. Jacobus.
Second Vice-Chairman—James M. Varuum.
Treasurer—S. V. R. Cruger.
Recording Secretary—William H. Bellamy.
Assistant Secretary—J. Thomas Stearus.
Sergeant-al-Arms—Charles H. Grant.

It was something after the usual hour of meeting then Chairman Mitchell called the County Committee to order. The great hall was filled. The roll call was dispensed with as it was generally understood that the roll would have to be called on the election for chairman Chairman Charles N. Tainter of the Committee on Contested Seats, read the report of the committee on the contests in the IVth, Vith and XVIth Districts and a separate report at the close, making certain recom-

In the IVth District the contestants were headed by leorge W. Kram and Charles Abbott. The committee found that the principal witness offered by the con testants was Inspector John Mulvey. It was shown that Mulvey came to the polling place after the primary had begun. He was asked if he had been he swore that he had not. It was charged that the watchers for the opposition had been ejected by the police. One Beatty was the only man who produ eredentials and he was allowed to remain, but soon wentaway. No watcher with paper credentials was driven away. There was a slight disturbance in the hallway and this was promptly quelled by the police The primary was in the main orderly. The recommended that the sitting delegates, headed by William H. Townley, have the seats. This was unan nously agreed to.
In the VIth District the contestants, headed by John

riebling, asserted that persons not enrolled were permitted to vote at the primary, that men not residents acted as enrelling officers when only five were allowed to act, and that the report was signed by only two of them. The committee found that one man had been en-rolled under a wrong name and the mistake had been corrected. The number of persons who voted was found to correspond with the check list. The charge that non-residents were allowed to vote was shown to be untrue. The returns were signed by a majority of the eged, that Inspector Major, who was responsible for the contest, had the poll list, and refused to file it with the secretary of the County Committee. The sitting delega-

In the XVIth District the contestants were headed b that Michael Cregan ran the primary to suit himself. The poli list was missing in this case, too. It was asserted that it had been mailed to the secretary. The contestants said that if the pollist was produced, grave irregularities could be shown. A duplicate list was prepared from the check roll. The contestants failed to produce any witnesses to make good their assertions. The delegation headed by Captain Cregan was scated.

The committee made the following recommendations: The committee made the following recommendation. In connection with the investigation we became convinced that very grave irregularities existed in all the Assembly Districts respecting the filing of the poil and enrolment lists. In no case had they been filed in time and in some cases they had not been filed at all, as prescribed by Article 5 of the Constitution and rules. The harm which comes from such neglect is very apparent, and stringent measures shad be enforced looking to a prompt and speedy remedy.

They therefore recommend the adoption of the following amendments to the 5th Article of the Constitution: The secretary of the County Committee shall not place upon the list of delerates of the County Committee any delegation that claims a seat in case the poil list four days after the primary election, or in case said district is not flied within four days after the primary election, or in case said district has felled to file with the said secretary the en district has felled to file with the said secretary the enrolment roll within one week after the close of each aunual enrolment, as prescribed by Article 3 of the Constitution. Your committee also her to report that in their opinion more liberal provision should be made for watchers than are specifically provided by statute and that the following additional clause be added to Article 5 of the Constitution and Rules:

"Three watchers who may be duly accredited shall be allowed by the Board of Inspectors to each party repre-sented in their annual enrolment or is the primary election and they shall be allowed to be present at the enrolment and polls for the purpose of observation and challenge from the opening of the polls to the close of the count."

This was signed by Charles N. Tainter, Granville P. Hawes, John D. Lawson, Ashbel P. Fitch, and Henry

mmendations could only be acted on at the next meet ing, one month's notice being required for any change of the constitution. The chairman then announced that John D. Lawson arose and said :

John D. Lawson arose and said:

I rise for the purpose of placing in nomination for chairman a gentleman well knows to us all. I believe every gentleman within the sound of my voice will agree with me that he is eminently his for the place. He has been a member of the Republican party since its birth. He has never faitered in his alleriance to it in either victory or defeat. He is a thorough representative of the Republican party, a staiwart Republican in every sense of the word. I nominate for chairman of this committee Levi Parsons Morton. [Loud cheers.]

Edward F. Brown, of the XXist District—I rise to nominate another candidate for chairman of this committee. [A sensation was caused by this remark as it was supposed that Mr. Morton's nomination would be made unanimous.] I understand that a caucus of the great majority of the leaders of the party was held this afternoon at which the question of nominating officers of this committee for the ensuing year was discussed. The XXIst District has always been a Republican district. I have been elected chairman of the district committee. I was not invited to participate in the caucus. The majority of my delegation have directed me to nominate for chairman of this committee. Edward Mitchell. [Applause.] I do not wish to detract from Mr. Morton's eminent fitness for the place. But my district has a right to a voice in this matter, and we think that Mr. Mitchell has earned his re-election by his services during the past year.

General Joseph C. Jackson, in rising to second Mr. Morton's nomination, said in part :

It becomes, sometimes, a necessity to look around and seek an organizing mind. In looking through the party, be finds no one who has more zeal-custy, honestly and ably served the party than I. P. Morton. When one tooks over a body like this, it is obvious that it should have a recognized leader. Among the men whose names are known throughout the city, State and country as able leaders none will be recognized sooner than that of L. P. Morton.

George B. Deane, sr., moved that the committee proceed to an election. Secretary McAfee called the 601 Mr. Mitchell received most of his votes in the Hild, XIth, XXth and XXst Districts, and a few scatter reached, Henry C. Perley said that he would vote for a man who would accept the place if elected. It was known that Mr. Morton would not accept. He would Folon B. Smith had been called to the chair. He ansounced the vote as 227 for Morton and 38 for Mitchell Mr. Mitchell thanked the XXIst District members for presenting his name, and said he was about to make the vote unanimous when they nominated him. He now moved to make the vote unanimous. This was done.

William H. Townley nominated for first vice-chair man one who had been a gallant soldier in the fleid and brave and stanch Republican, one who had never suited under defeat. If the assertion made by a gent man a short time previous was true he might be called on to preside over their deliberations, and he would,d so ably. He nominated John W. Jacobus. cheera] Mr. Jacobus was elected by acciannation.

Charles N. Taintor nominated for second vice-chairman James M. Varnum; Solon B. Smith nominated S V. R. Cruger for treasurer; Professor J. L. N. Hunt commated William H. NORTHWESTEEN ROADS FIGHTING STILL KEEPING UP THE WAR OF RATES. BOCK ISLAND CUTTING TO JUNCTION POINTS IN

ORIO AND MINNESOTA. CHICAGO, June 15 (Special) .- The Western passenger rate war continues with vigor. The $3 rate of the Rock Island Road to St. Paul now includes all junction poin's in Ohio, Minnesota and many in Dakota. This rate applies on both east and westbound business. The Milwaukee and St. Paul, which is making the fight on the Rock Island seconded by the Northwestern Road, has not met the 83 cut to northwestern points, but is pushing a $3 rebate rate to Council Blufts The greatest slaughter on the part of the Mil-waukee and St. Paul is on its $1 tickets to wankee and St. Paul is on its SI tickets to Rock Island, Davonport, Dos Moines and Sigourney, Tickets are also sold at these points for SI to Chicago, and the public are using them extensively to reach SI termediate points and are saving all the way from SI to Si each on the tickets by so doing. The Miwaukee has also made its Council Bluffs trains daily, including Sunday, both to and from Chicago. The Chicago and Northwestern road is following slowly after the Miwaukee and St. Paul in the cut, but is cut-ting at such points as they are obliged to, in order to save their road from loss on passenger business.

WILLIAMSPORT AND NORTHEASTERN. BINGHAMTON, N. Y., June 15 (Special) .- The Binghamton and Williamsport Railway scheme, which has been talked over and worked at for years, now seems nearer a focus than ever, and there seems bu little doubt but that the road will go through this sea son. The distance is about 100 miles, running between Union, N. Y., Little Meadows, Penn., north of Berenice, thence down the Loyal Sock to Williamsport. The country to be opened up is one rich in mineral and vegetable products, and the road will, it is believed, prove way of the Albany Road, and the Western Pennsylvania system, the latter comprising the Clearfield coal district and the oil and coal districts about Pittsburg. Its projectors claim that it will make the shortest passenger route be tween Boston or Albany and Pittsburg, Philadelphia Friday evening has hold a meeting at which it resolved to do all in its power to further the project. A corporation has been formed there, called the Williamsport and Northeastern Railroad Company, the articles of which have been or will soon be, files. A corporation has also been formed in this city called the Bughamton and Southwestern Railroad Company, and the articles of incurporation will be filed to-morrow. These two companies are so formed, to make valid the proceedings according to the interstate railway law, and will meet at the line and consolidate. The directors at this end of the road are among Bughamton's prominent and wealthy men, and each has subscribed a large sum. They are Soechl P. Noyes, Charles A. Whitney, James E. Weed, John Ray Clarke, J. Warren, Charles E. Lee and George Whitney. It is proposed to build the depot in this city just north of the Erie station, on the old Colley property, and the road will probably go out of the city through Dwightville. About $1,200,000 must be raised in this city, in Whitamsport, and along the line; and about $2,800,000 more is expected from New-York capitalists. The cost of the road is estimated at $4,000,000. Friday evening last held a meeting at which it resolve

CINCINNATI, HAMILTON AND DAYTON.

CINCINNATI, June 15 .- The annual meeting of the stockholders of the Cheinnatt, Hamilton and Dayton Railroad for the election of directors was held to-day. The report snows that the gross earnings fo receipts from other sources were $85,364, and the fixed charges $622,738. After deducting dividends paid there was left a balance surplus of $182,982. The election of directors resulted as follows: Augustus S. inslow, George Hoadly, C. C. Waite, Christopher Winslow, George Hoadly, C. C. Waite, Christopher Meyer, William A. Fractor, Alexander McDonaid, George H. Stayner, Eugene Zimmerman and Henry S. Ives. Eugene Zimmerman, who says he is one of the principal stockholders under the new management, stated in an interview that the poincy of the road would not be changed; that it would not become a part of the Huntington system, though it would be operated in harmony with that system. To this end the bridge over the Ohio River would be pushed to early completion.

MR. CABLE ON THE NORTHWESTERN RATE WAR. R. R. Cabie, president of the Chicago, Rock Island and Pacific Rulway, arrived in the city late on Monday, and in reply to inquiries about the rate war between the Granger radrows he said yesterday: "I do not anticipate a great deal of trouble from it. The St. Paul says that we are responsible for it, and naturally we insist that the St. Paul began it. We think that we are right in our position, and probably the St. Paul entertains a similar opinion. It is hard to say where the differences may end, but I do not recard the quarrel as a serious one. It may extend to freight rates, although I hardly think there is much danger of that result. Of course, no one can tell the end of such a conflict."

Speaking of the crops, Mr. Cable said that the prospects were excellent, although in some sections there had been damage by strouth. "The corn crop had got beyond this injury, and probably the whest crop will recover from it. We have a good deal of old wheat on our line, but it refuses to move on account of the low do not anticipate a great deal of trouble from it. The

NO SETTLEMENT OF TRANSCONTINENTAL WAR. It was announced some time ago that a meeting of the transcontinental raffroad lines would be held yesterday for the purpose of settling differences and presumably restoring rates. It was said at the time that presumably restoring rates. It was said at the time that the Pacific Mail Steamship Company had not been invited to the conference, and the officers of that company made light of any settlement which did not take them into consideration. There was no meeting yesterday, and none has been called. C. P. Huntington remarked, when his attention was called to the matter: "I do not know of any meeting today or at any other time, although I presume that there will be an end of the war some time in the future. I acree with Solomon in the opinion that all things must have an end. I should say that in the course of two or three weeks something might be accomplished, but certainly not in a few days. I do not know that any attempts have been made recently to settle this quarrel."

A LULL IN BROADWAY MATTERS.

There was a calm in Broadway railroad matters jesterday so far as the new management was con-cerned. Eithu Root has entered on his duties as attorcerned. Eithu Root has entered on his duties as attorney for the Broadway and Seventh Avenue road and Colonel Bins is preparing to go to Europe on the Etruria on Saturday. Clarence A. Saward, counsel of Receiver O'Brien, will go on the same vessel.

Corporation Counsel Lacombe was served with a notice from the Attorney-General calling on him to show cause on June 19 at Catekill why all the proceedings in the case of the city awainst the Broadway and Seventh Avenue road should not be stayed until the winding up of the affairs of the company by the receiver or until the city should have disposed of its right, title and interest to allow cars to run in Broadway.

SUED FOR REPUSING TO CARRY BEER. CHICAGO, June 15 .- Suit for $10,000 damages was begun in the United States Circuit Court to day by George A. and Frederick W. Bewman, beer-venders, of Marshalltown, Iowa, against the Chi-cago and Northwestern Railroad for its refusal cago and Northwestern Kaliroad for its refusal to transport 5,000 barrels of beer for the plaintiffs from Chicago to Marshaittown. The railroad declines to carry the beverage for fear of the lows law, which makes it a penal offence to take into the State liquors without a permit from the auditor of the county to which the liquor is to be taken.

WAITING FOR MR. GOWEN'S PLANS. PHILADELPHIA, June 15 (Special).-The reenstruction trustees of the Reading Railroad Company for the present will not appoint a limit of time for de-positing securities under the Morgan-Drexel syndicate for reorganizing that property. This is because of the disposition of the creditors of the company to see President Gowen's plan before making a deposit of se-

The connecting link of the Pennsylvania-Schuylkill The connecting link of the Fennsylvania-Schuyikil Valley Line with the Wyoming coal fields has been put under contract, and it will be completed this fail. The line extends from Rock Glen, on the Sunbury, Hazleton and Wikkesbarre, to Nesopic, on the North and West Branch Railroad. Traffic will be taken from that point over the Lebigh Valley Railroad to a connection with the Fennsylvania-Schuyikil Valley Railroad in the Schuyikil anthractic coal fields. Fresident Gowen has no fear of the new line injuring his authractic coal trade, as to get coal trade the company would have to take it from its old lines and this it cannot afford to do.

HISTELLANEOUS RAILWAY INTELLIGENCE. BOSTON, June 15.—The report of the cominvestigation came up in the House this morning. The House by a vote of 109 to 82 substituted for the report of the committee a resolution giving the petitioner, Cyrns W. Field, leave to withdraw. All except four Democrats opposed the substitution. The resolution now goes to the Senate.

ST. LOUIS, June 15.—The sale of the Wabash, St. Louis and Pacific Railroad by the United States Circuit Court and racine names of the United States tredit Court and the purchasing committee of the bondhoiders was conditionally confirmed to-day. BOSTON, June 15 (Special).—The Vermont Central Rallway Company has leased the Ogdensburg and Lake Champlain Read. There will be no change at present in the heads of departments. The lease includes the boat line from Ordensburg to Chicago, and gives the Central Vermont a through line from Windsor and White River Junction to Chicago.

The Bank of the State of New-York has consented to set as a clearing house on Thursday, June 7, of all outstanding contracts connected with the exchange of bonds of the Texas and St. Louis Railroad for the first and second mortgage bonds of the St. Louis, Arkansas and Texas Rallway. All statements must be deposited at the bank on the day preceding the clearance, and all balances of bonds or currency must be paid to the bank before 11:30 a.m. on the day of the clearance. A small fee will be charged.

VERMONT REPUBLICAN CONVENTION.

THE STRUGGLE FOR THE GOVERNORSHIP-PROMI-NENT CANDIDATES.

MONTPELIER, Vt., June 15 .- To-night the ontlook is good for one of the largest and most hotly contested conventions, to-morrow, ever held by the Republicans of Vermont. Of the 678 delegates few will be absent and opinions as to the successful candidates are numerous. The town is overrun with attendants on the convention, and the canvassing going on has never been equalled in Vermont. The prominent names mentioned for Governor are Ormsbe-Batcheider, Poland, William Wells and W. G. Veazy, Their respective strength on the first ballot is estimated as follows: Ormsbee, 250, which will probably be his full strength; Batchelder, 225, with a chance of gains; Poland, upward of 75, but his friends do not intend to present his name formally at the first ballot; Wells, 15 to 20, and Veazy, about the same with chances of the latter carrying the day, in

For Lieutenant-Governor, Hugh Henry and F. Fairsome headway, but probably cannot win. Frank Plumley, of Northfield, will be president of the convention.

All the sons and daughters are married. Mr. Dennis was sixty-five years old. He was born on January 26, 1821, at New-London, Conn. He came to this city when a mere lad and entered the div-goods business as a clerk for C. H. Russell & Co. Before he was of age he entered the shipping house of E. D. Huribut & Co. as a clerk. Here he laid the foundation of that remarkable found of information, which made him in later years a veritable marine encyclopedia. While stillayoung man, he entered the United States Naval service as clerk or secretary to Commodore Stringham, and accompanied him upon several potrasated cruises to distant parts of the globe. It was in this service that he gained the close acquaintance with the geography of the sea, and the tendency of serial and ocean currents, which was of vast use to him in his later life.

After leaving Commodore Stringham, he was for some months a clerk with Goodhue & Co., the shipping merchants. He left his place here in 1850 to enter the employment of the Atlantic Mutual Insurance Company, with which he has ever since been connected, and in which he company as entry clerk, holding that blace for four years, and employing his opportunities so faithfully that at the expiration of that time he was promoted to be assistant underwriter. Within six months after securing this promotion, or in February, 1855, he was appointed second vice-president, which office he has ever since held, When Mr. Dennis died, his term of continuous service for the company was ilonger than that of any other man except the president, John D. Jones, Mr. Dennis had been there for thirty-five years. He was regarded one of the best authorities in New-York in matters of marine marriance. His private fortune is supposed to be in the neighborhood of $300,000.

JACOB WREY MOULD. Jacob Wrey Mould, the architect and decorator, died suddenly at his home, No. 123 West Twentywas graduated at Kings College and studied his profession under Inigo Jones. He accompanied Mr. Jones to Spain to visit the Adhambra for information for a work the architect was then preparing. Shortly after, in 1850. Moses Grinnell induced Mr. Mould to visit the United States to foliow his profession bere. He made the plans for All Souls Church, at Fourth-ave, and Twentieth-st, and subsequently made designs for many privated dwellings of the city. He was a skirth imsician, and as a miniscal critic contributed frequently to the press twenty years ago. In 1850 he went to Peru with Henry Meigs and was engaged there for several years. He had been connected at different times with the parks of the city, and contributed many designs of the works that aiorn Central Park. Two years ago he was appointed architect of the Park Department. He made claborate designs for the tomb of General Grant at Riversida, after which the tomb was built. He leaves a wife, but no children. The (uncrai will take place this afternoon at his home in West Twenty-sixth-st.
